VI. Reports

i. Friends update

Fox

• There was nothing to add to the written report.

ii. Foundation update

Fox

• There was nothing to add to the written report.

iii. June 2020 Financial Statements

Hackett asked Fox if there were plans to spend any excess funds we carried over on projects. Fox stated she would like to hold off on spending the additional carry over until there is a clear picture of how the pandemic will effect the collection of property taxes, since there could be a potential reduction. Fox stated there are still several capital projects we will need to complete in the next 10-20 years and she will have a better picture of the cost of these projects before next budget cycle and it may be prudent to save the funds for the future projects. The board agreed to hold off on spending additional funds at this time.
iv. Director’s report

There was nothing to add to the written report.
